

DENIN DIALOGUE SERIES

“An Evening with Terry Tempest Williams”

A live on-stage conversation with Professor McKay Jenkins followed by audience Q&A and book signing

Feb. 28
7:00 p.m.
Mitchell Hall

Author, conservationist and activist Terry Tempest Williams is the Annie Clark Tanner Scholar in Environmental Humanities at the University of Utah. She is the author of highly regarded works of environmental literature including Refuge and Finding Beauty in a Broken World. The audience is invited to submit questions for Williams ahead of time via DENIN’s Facebook or Twitter accounts.

Free and open to the public.

Co-sponsored by
UD College of Arts & Sciences
CAS Environmental Humanities Initiative
Department of English

This program is partially funded by a grant from the Delaware Humanities Forum, a state program of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

